

WEST COVINA CITY COUNCIL ELECTION 2020
Non-Elected or Appointed
CITY COUNCIL CANDIDATE MEETING PARTICIPATION
ORAL COMMUNICATIONS / PUBLIC COMMENTS ^{1,2}
2019 & 2020

Compiled by Jerri Potras, September 2020

The public comment period in local government is very important because it gives members of the public an opportunity to communicate their views and express concerns to their elected representatives. This chart lists the meetings where the non-elected or appointed candidates running for office spoke as a resident during Oral Communications (Regular Meetings) and Public Comments (Special Meetings). The purpose of the chart is to highlight one aspect of a candidate's involvement in our city.

Listed by District and candidate last name.

Notes:

- ¹ This chart was compiled using Approved Regular and Special City Council Meeting Minutes posted on the City Clerk's page of West Covina website as of September 22, 2020.
- ² Councilmembers attend meetings in their official capacity and vote on issues. Due to the special role, their positions on issues are shown in separate charts.
- ³ Approved City Council Meeting Minutes show this candidate made no public comment at a either Regular or Special Meeting during the year indicated.
- ⁴ This candidate spoke at meetings in her official role as City Treasurer and at some meetings as a representative of West Covina Beautiful. Since the candidate is the elected City Treasurer, this candidate is included in the elected or appointed official charts.
